

REBUTTAL TO ARGUMENT AGAINST

PROPOSITION 1C

Yes on Proposition 1C makes shelters and homes available to battered women, seniors, homeless children, low income families, and former foster youths. It won't solve all of these problems overnight, but it is an important step forward.

Proposition 1C will not raise taxes. The measure will be paid for out of existing state resources. Just as important, Proposition 1C requires independent audits to protect taxpayers and ensure shelters and homes are built as promised.

This measure is the result of years of planning by experts in the problems of homelessness and domestic violence, as well as the housing crisis facing the elderly, families with children, people with mental illness, and veterans.

That is why leading California organizations have endorsed Proposition 1C, including:

Habitat for Humanity, San Diego, Greater Los Angeles, Sacramento, and Fresno

AARP

Congress of California Seniors

Proposition 1C is a fiscally responsible part of the Rebuild California Plan, a long-term plan to build the roads, housing, schools, and flood-control systems we need for California's future.

Yes on Proposition 1C addresses problems we can't afford to ignore. It will provide clean and safe accommodations for seniors, shelters for homeless families, and secure homes for battered women. Please help California take a positive step forward by voting Yes on Proposition 1C.
